

Make a Zine, Make a Difference Competition Application

An Alternative Guide to Personal Tutoring

Deadline: 7pm Thursday 29 November 2018

Instructions

Any student registered at the University of Sheffield can enter this competition. Applicants can apply individually or within a team of up to 4 members. If you are applying as a team, please ensure that all team members contributed to the zine/poster development. To enter the competition, complete this form and email Nick at raratutor@sheffield.ac.uk, together with a photocopy or photograph of your zine/poster. Please ensure that all pages of the zine are visible. You may submit multiple photocopies/photographs if you are unable to capture all pages in one file.

For help submitting your zine, or if you have any questions, please email Nick (as above). Please submit your application form and zine by no later than 7pm on Thursday 29 November 2018.

Applicant details

Please provide the first name, department and year of course (e.g. 1, 2, 3) for each member of the team. If you are not applying as a team, then leave rows 2-4 blank.

	First name	Department	Year
1.
2.
3.
4.

Zine summary

Please provide a brief summary (100 words) of your alternative guide to personal tutoring - This could be anything from the aim of your guide to the impact you hope it will have.

Key message

Please provide one sentence to explain the key message to be taken from your guide.

Make a Zine, Make a Difference Competition Application

Zine workshops (optional)

If you would like help developing the content of your alternative guide or creating your zine, then why not come along to a free workshop? At the workshops you'll learn how to make a zine and take part in group discussions about personal tutoring and attainment gaps to help inform the content of your guide. Sign-up here:

Wednesday 10 October – 5-6.30pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/make-a-zine-workshop-1-tickets-50483043141>

Tuesday 16 October – 4.15-5.45pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/make-a-zine-workshop-2-tickets-50483348053>

Monday 22 October – 4.15-5.45pm

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/make-a-zine-workshop-3-tickets-50483428293>

Please note that you do not need to attend a workshop to be eligible to enter the competition. Any student registered at the University of Sheffield can apply.

Zine panel

All submitted zines/posters will be reviewed by a panel with representatives from the RARA project (including our student members) and the Student Union. The panel will make a decision in December 2018 and will inform the winner(s).

Enquiries

If you have any questions, email Nick on raratutor@sheffield.ac.uk

Good luck!